NO. 484

QUESTION AND ANSWER SESSION
FOLLOWING SECRETARY KISSINGER'S MEETING
WITH SECRETARY GENERAL WALDHEIM
AT THE UNITED NATIONS
SEPTEMBER 29, 1976

QUESTION: How was your talk with the Secretary-General, Mr. Secretary?

SECRETARY KISSINGER: It was very friendly, very fruitful and we'll have a longer talk next week.

QUESTION: Could you tell us anything about your conversation with Mr. Nujoma this morning?

SECRETARY KISSINGER: We discussed the situation in the Security Council on Namibia. We are going to stay in touch with each other.

QUESTION: Is there any more hope after this conversation that there can be a meeting in Geneva?

SECRETARY KISSINGER: I think already there has been considerable progress and we are operating on the assumption that the meeting in Geneva will eventually emerge.

QUESTION: Does this talk make it more likely?

SECRETARY KISSINGER: Oh, I don't know. I'll leave it up to Mr. Nujoma.

QUESTION: Are you against introducing the sanctions on South Africa at this time?

SECRETARY KISSINGER: Let's see what happens in negotiations.
